LEAGUE MEETING AT WESTERY

No Room for Mystic Team Unless Hope Valley Withdraws

—Liquor Raid on Potter Hill Road—Candidates for Census Appointments—North Stonington Commissioners Award $1,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hillard.

Officers of the Fifth company, Coast Artillery corps, Westery, have received notice from General Sackett, the adjutant general, that his recommendation that the annual encampment of the coast artillery districts be held during the week of July 17 to 24, inclusive, had been approved by the war department. It is probable that the tour of duty will be at the forts in Narragansett bay, as has been the case in the past two years. The date is one month earlier than last year, but is considered desirable for a greater number of the artillerymen, as many shops are now having their dull season, and it is easier for the employees to get away and do military service for the state.

Sheriff John R. Wilcox, who for the past twenty years has been the head of the Washington county institution at Kingston hill, has retired from the duties and has appointed Ralph H. Larkin to be the jailer. The sheriff has been ill recently, and makes the change in order to lessen his duties. Larkin is a well known justice of the peace and is the head of the institution. With his family, Sheriff Wilcox will soon move from the hill to his cottage in Kingston, and then Mr. Larkin and family will take up their residence at the jail.

There will be a meeting of Washington county at the Grange at the Rhode Island state college, Tuesday. An attractive programme for the afternoon will be given by the Grange. Lecturer E. Collins Telford will be the speaker. The general audience of discussion will be poultry, and speakers of prominence on the subject have been secured.

The interior of the First Baptist church has been considerably improved under the direction of a committee of which George B. Taylor, president of the board of trustees, was chairman. The ladies' aid society being represented by Mrs. Albert T. Kennedy and Miss Annie L. Edmond. There was thorough renovation of the church, including the roof to the ceiling. Added improvements are a boiler room, lavatory, ladies' cloak room and a coat room for gentlemen. The new improvements for the vestry a gas range and new chairs and drapery. The leaded windows are to be replaced the old ones in the future.

A series of special services will begin next Wednesday and continue every evening except Sunday. William H. Browning has been engaged to lead the choir of the church music for the ensuing year. The Sunday school is planning for a concert.

Miss Annie L. Edmond has been re-elected treasurer of the local union of the Young People's Christian Endeavor society. Class No. 12 has been organized in the Sunday school and has adopted the name of Galahad club, with these officers: Raymond Cranfill, president; Raymond Taylor, secretary and treasurer.

The handsome birthday chair and new railing in the primary room were presented by J. H. Aiger.

The funeral of Thomas Greenwood was held at St. Michael's church Sunday afternoon, the burial service being attended by a large number of friends. Including a delegation from St. Michael's Temperance society, of which Mr. Greenwood was a member. He was injured while at work at the Lorraine mill several weeks ago, and was taken to the Rhode Island hospital and subsequently removed to a special department, where he died last Friday. Mr. Greenwood is survived by his wife and two children, by his mother, two sisters and two brothers. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Michael's church.

To Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Campbell of Norwich, Mass., will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at the Methodist church Tuesday evening. Mr. Campbell is 74 years old and his wife, who was Ellen Cole of Granville, is a few years younger. The couple lived in Granville, Conn., in early life, but for many years in Southwick, Mass. Mr. Campbell is a retired cigar manufacturing is Mr. Campbell's business. They have had three children, Linwood of Ellington, Conn., Flora, wife of Lewis Hadden of Asagum, and Bertha, who died a few years ago, wife of Charles H. Chisham, of Granby, Conn.

Marionborough.

The Congregational church has extended a call to Rev. C. P. Ketchum, of Westery, Conn., to be pastor as successor to Rev. S. A. Abraham, who went to West/Sutfield last November.

STONINGTON.

Big Fish Hawks Noted at the Point—Accidents—Gun Club Combines Business and Pleasure.

Woman's Relief corps, No. 34, is to meet at Mrs. Ernest Sabcock's on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Henry Chesboro, who has been seriously ill at her home on Water street, is improving.

Large fish hawks of the osprey species have been feeding in the waters around the Point the past week. Professor Hinman of Westery called on friends here Sunday.

The entertainment committee of the Palmer Bible class of the First Baptist church is planning to hold another social. An out of town speaker is to be engaged.

The Atwood motor works is rushing orders for spring delivery. The meeting of the warden and burgesses will be held on Tuesday evening.

E. F. Darrell's summer home, Cove Lawn, is being received by repairs and alterations. Three Italian laborers at the velvet mill at Westery were injured on Thursday when they lost control of it and it dropped, bruising two of the men. Miss Sadie Tamar has been confined to the house by illness.

The East Greenwich Fire company, as a token of friendship, presented the Barber Hose company a silver loving cup.

Representatives of the Rhode Island and Connecticut Baseball league met in annual session Sunday in the office of the president, Dr. John M. O'Connell, of Westery, president. Charles D. Cornell of White Rock, vice president. The executive committee of six will be elected by the league. The league will meet at Westery, Stonington, Wakefield, White Rock, Hope Valley and Carolina.

A communication was read from representatives of the Mystic team asking for admission to the league, but there was no vacancy the request could not be granted. Last season the Hope Valley team transferred its franchise to the Mystic team. When the Mystic team withdrew, the Mystic franchise went to Wakefield, and Norwich was admitted under Hope Valley's franchise.

Secretary Chamberlain was instructed to communicate with the holders of the Hope Valley franchise to ascertain whether a team was to be placed in the league the coming season. Indications are that Hope Valley will formally withdraw from the league, and in that event, Mystic will be admitted. The matter will be settled at a meeting to be held in Westery two weeks hence.

CLOSING OF REPAIR SHOPS.

Navigation Company Retains But One Man in Its Stonington Plant.

The repair shops of the New England Navigation company, located in Stonington, were closed Saturday, and only Master Mechanic James H. Comstock and Foreman Robert Patterson will be retained in the employ of the company. The other men have been offered work at other shops, but it is doubtful if they will accept.

Among those who are dropped by the company are William H. Hallett of the borough, boilermaker, employe for 25 years; Charles H. Newbury, plumber, and Moses Crisp blacksmith, for 30 and 27 years respectively on the company's payroll, and E. C. Gunn of New London, boilermaker, who has 33 years to his credit. William P. Levis and William Patterson of the borough are also discharged.
